The Hit of the Season will be the Elite Lady Minstrels at Morrisville opera house next week.

Never in the history of histrionic events has there been conceived a more novel and thoroughly enjoyable entertainment than a lady minstrel, and it was indeed a happy thought when our town's ladies interested themselves in the production of this class of a novelty, as will be attested by all who have the pleasure of attending the Elite Lady Minstrels at opera house, Thursday and Friday evenings, October 15 and 16, for the benefit of the Universalist and Cong'l churches.

Profr. W. H. Leonard, who has directed many of these entertainments throughout New England, has charge of this event, and assures a positive novelty, in keeping with the most rigid propriety, his productions being endorsed by the clergy wherever presented. The very best lady talent in Morrisville has been procured and rehearsals are progressing admirably.
Following are the names of those taking part:—

Anna Harris, Grace Stafford, Oritha Andrews, Lizzie Stone, Myra Heath, Jessie Gates, Lena Sanders, Florence Davis, Bell last Friday afternoon in honor of her father, Hon. W. M. Terrill, who has been a guest there for several days.

The occasion was Mr. Terrill's seventy-fifth birthday and was a very enjoyable one to all present. The invited guests were Mrs. H. A. Slayton Terrill, G. H. Terrill, W. S. Cheney and Mrs. U.
G. Stowe. Mrs. Stowe was the oldest person present, being in her 86th year. She would easily pass for a lady of seventy and found much enjoyment in the event. A pleasing feature was the receipt of a letter by Mr. Terrill from each of his absent children, which was happily arranged by Mrs.
Cheney.
